

RAFT Certificate Now Available to All UF Research Administrators

The Office of Research is pleased to announce the availability of the new RAFT (Research Administration and Financials Training) certificate of completion. The certificate will be awarded to employees of UF/UF Health who complete the courses shown below.* The RAFT certificate sequence includes five online courses and nine instructor-led courses.

Instructor-led classes are offered monthly and registration is provided on a first-come, first-served basis. To view RAFT training courses open for registration, please visit the HR Sponsored Programs Course Catalog. All RAFT training courses are available to employees working outside the Gainesville area via the Internet. To inquire about remote access, please contact Steve Slater.

RAFT Certificate Course Sequence

* All course completions attained prior to this announcement will be honored toward the RAFT certificate.