

SILBERGER PAPER PRIZE AWARD PROGRAM

The Boston Psychoanalytic Society and Institute's Center for Multidisciplinary Psycho-analytic Studies (COMPASS) announces

SILBERGER SCHOLAR PAPER PRIZE AWARD

CALL FOR PAPERS

Each year the Silberger Scholar Paper Prize Award is granted to the author of an outstanding paper reflecting an interdisciplinary consideration of psychoanalytic theories or concepts. The award committee welcomes submissions from non-clinical scholars in neighboring fields, including developmental psychology, neuroscience, anthropology, sociology, social work, theology, journalism, historical studies, arts and humanities.

The award recipient receives a $1,000 honorarium, a one-year Academic Partner membership and opportunities for collaborative engagement with BPSI faculty and Members, leading toward presentation of the paper on December 13, 2017 at the Boston Psychoanalytic Society and Institute. The winning paper will be published in American Imago.

Applications may come from any members of the broader academic community in allied fields.

For more information, please contact Committee Chair Murray Schwartz, PhD, murray.schwartz@gmail.com.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS -- AUGUST 1, 2017.

Submissions should be made via email to murray.schwartz@gmail.com.

For more information about COMPASS, visit: bpsi.org/compass/