

We are so thrilled to announce our CRLA Northeast 2021

Regional E-Conference

Monday, April 26 - Tuesday, April 27th, 2021

being held virtually!

Higher Education, the Pandemic, and Equity:
Where are We Now?
Where are We Going?

The pandemic has had serious implications to not only our lives and the lives of our students, but to educational institutions and systems across the country.

This year's conference will provide us with the opportunity to discuss our innovative approaches and experiences during the pandemic regarding student learning, and the transformative experiences that have taken place.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS:

Learning Alone: Academic Capital Revisited with a Post-COVID-19 Vision

Jack Trammel, CRLA Past President and Chair of Sociology, Criminal Justice, and Human Services, Mount St. Mary's University (MD)

Call for Proposals

Please submit proposal by Monday, April 12th, 2021 that includes:

1. Presentation title
2. Intended audience
3. A fifty word description that briefly describes your 45 minute presentation (please allow yourself 15mins for Q&A)
4. The names, job titles, institutions, emails, and full mailing addresses for all presenters

Please email all proposals to: Amani Tatum, CRLA Northeast President, at Atatum01@manhattan.edu and CC crlanortheast@crlanortheast.org. If you have any questions you can also call 718.862.7263 with any questions.

I am excited to be hosting another conference and look forward to working on expanding our networks and engaging our Northeastern colleagues!